our risd a place to show and tell

March 2014

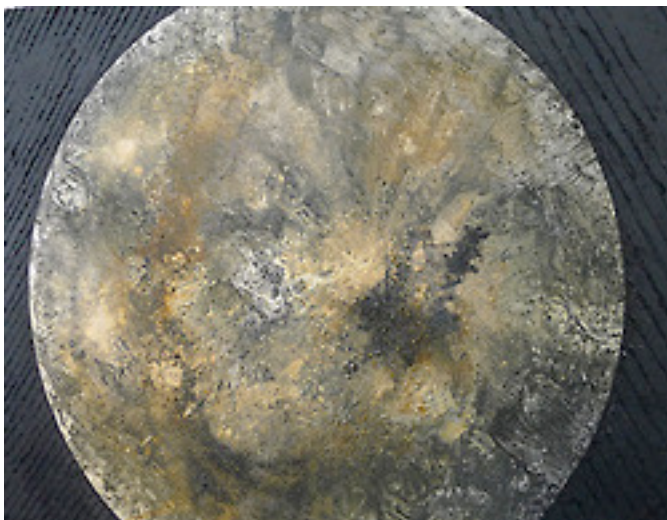

Rhode Island artists and art lovers gathered last night for the opening of Periphery, RISD/RI's curated exhibition of alumni work at Keeseh Studios in Providence. Local contemporary art dealer Cade Tompkins selected work by 30 artists from the 110 proposals submitted. "My choices for Periphery explore borders and perimeters – on the verge or just beyond the fringe," says Tompkins.

The outstanding and cohesive show – organized by RISD/RI club leader Becky Fong 05 GD and hosted by Keeseh owner Asher Dunn 08 ID --- includes paintings, sculpture, textiles and prints. Sarah Garrison coordinated the artwork, Keri King 05 IL provided publicity and marketing and Melinda Rainsberger 04 FAV was event photographer. Generous in-kind donations were provided by Whole Foods, Flatbread Co., Gansett Beer and Campus Fine Wines.
